A Season of Gratitude and Grace

As the leaves turn to their brilliant hues of crimson and gold, and a crispness fills the air, our thoughts naturally drift towards the comforting warmth of family gatherings, shared meals, and the cherished traditions of Thanksgiving. This time of year offers a beautiful opportunity to pause, reflect, and cultivate hearts overflowing with gratitude.

In a world that rushes us from one task to the next, Thanksgiving serves as an annual invitation from among the earliest colonizers to slow down. It calls to us to remember the bountiful blessings God has poured into our lives – the love of family and friends, the provision of food and shelter, the beauty of creation, and most profoundly, the gift of God's unfailing love and amazing grace.

The Psalmist instructs us, "Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love endures forever" (Psalm 107:1). This isn't just a suggestion; it's a profound truth about the very nature of God and our appropriate response to His goodness. When we intentionally practice gratitude, it shifts our perspective. It helps us see beyond immediate challenges and recognize the steadfast hand of God at work in every circumstance.

This Thanksgiving, whether gathered around a table laden with turkey and all the fixings or a frozen microwavable meal, let's not only give thanks for material blessings but also for spiritual ones. Let us be grateful for the gift of salvation, the hope we have in Christ, and the fellowship we share as a church family.

Consider how you might extend your gratitude beyond those closest to you. An extra prayer for those grieving, a kindness to a stranger, or an act of service within our congregation. True Thanksgiving naturally overflows into generosity and compassion.

May this Thanksgiving be more than just a holiday; may it be a holy day, a time when our hearts are deeply stirred to acknowledge God's faithfulness. May our homes be filled with laughter, love, and a profound sense of peace that comes from knowing we are truly blessed.

Wishing you and your loved ones a most blessed and joyous Thanksgiving!

In God's Grace,
Rev. Colby Smith

News & Announcements

First Christian Church,

With a grateful heart, I wish to thank the many friends at First Christian Church for their unconditional love and kind support after John's passing. Every kind word and every hug meant so much to me. My children, Marti and Johnathan felt your love and support as well. John loved this church and his many friends at First Christian.

Lovingly,

Martha Caywood

Dear First Christian,

Thank you so much for all you do for the Shephard's House. Your ongoing support truly makes a difference. We're especially grateful for the beautiful handmade backpacks. Your care and generosity are felt deeply by everyone here.

With appreciation,

Shea Brittan & Annie Brookbavic

Shepherd House Staff

Dear First Christian Friends,

Thank you so much for your generous October Contribution to Boyle County ASAP.

Your donation last year went to support the costs of transitional recovery (sober living) housing for adult men and women in recovery. Given the current number of requests for transitional housing assistance, we anticipate that your donation this year will again be used for housing.

Assistance with a rental deposit and/or the first month's rent often helps to prevent homelessness in those people coming out of treatment programs and jails. Stable housing is a key component of achieving long term recovery from substance use disorders.

In appreciation for your witness to God's Love,

Kathy L. Miles, Coordinator

Women's Retreat Recap

John 10:14 "Whoever drinks from the water that I will never get thirsty again. In fact, the water I will give will become a well of water springing up for eternal life."

On Saturday 10/4, 10 women & our friend, Kristi Stuckel, took the opportunity to reconnect, recharge and reflect on what it means to be filled with living water. At "the well," our deeper relationship with God reveals that: 1) he sees & hears us even when we feel unworthy, 2) he calls us to a purpose in his kingdom, 3) he encourages us to rewrite ourselves, embracing a fresh start and healing, and 4) he helps us find our voice, serving HIS messenger. The day was filled with tasty treats, stories, laughter & comradery. Our service project. Filling 12 backpacks with personal supplies for the Shepherd's House Women's Sober Living facility, gave our hands and hearts the opportunity to offer that very living water to someone. The afternoon concluded with a reminding us individually that Christ is counting on us to use our lives to share the "living water" of the Holy Spirit... and with Christ, we are ready.
