

Through Ashes Toward Light

As the dust of Advent, Epiphany and the ensuing Ordinary time of the Christian calendar settles, we prepare our hearts for the season of Lent. I find myself reflecting on the profound beauty of the “wilderness”.

Often, we view Lent as a season of “giving up”—a period of religious grit and self-denial. But the forty days of Lent beginning with Ash Wednesday, February 18, are not intended to be a test of will-power; they are a gift of holy recalibration. They are an invitation to step away from the noise of a crowded world and rediscover the voice of the One who calls us “Beloved.”

The Call to the Wilderness: In the Gospel accounts, the Spirit led Jesus into the wilderness. Yes, it was a place of hunger and temptation, but it was also a place of singular focus.

In our modern lives, we are rarely “hungry” for information or distraction, yet we are often starving for presence. Lent asks us to create an intentional void so that God might fill it. Whether you are fasting from a specific food, a digital habit, or a spirit of busyness, remember the goal: we empty ourselves not to stay empty, but to make room for the One who calls us “Beloved.”

The Lenten Pillars

During the Lenten season, I invite our congregation to lean into the three traditional pillars of Lenten devotion, viewed through a lens of grace:

Prayer: Not as duty, but as dialogue. Find five minutes of physical and mental silence daily. Let God look inside you.

Fasting: Not as a diet, but as a “remembering.” When you feel the pang of that given up, let it be a prompt to pray for those whose pangs are real and not choice.

Almsgiving: Not as a tax, but as an overflow. Let the resources (time or money) you save through fasting be directed toward the vulnerable in our community.

A Journey Toward the Light

In Lent, we must remember that as we walk toward Jerusalem with Christ, we do not walk toward a tomb, but through one. The ashes we received at the start of this journey on Ash Wednesday are a reminder of our mortality, but they are applied in the shape of a cross—the ultimate sign of victory.

I encourage you: do not be afraid of quiet. Do not be discouraged if you stumble in your Lenten disciplines. God is not looking for perfection; God is looking for the contrition found within an open heart.

May this season be for you a time of refreshment, a time of shedding what is heavy, and a time of drawing nearer to the heart of the Father.

Peace and every good,

Rev. Colby

OUTREACH is as easy as A B C....

A for Action

B for Being aware of others' needs

C for Community focused

It's no coincidence that our Outreach Ministry's first projects for 2026 start off in February with an "extra dose" of heart and everyone is invited to share from theirs!

Our "Food from the heart" collection begins with a simple list, but when multiplied, provides a helping hand & nourishment to those in our community who find themselves needing extra help.

Our " Fun from the heart" takes place at Parkview Assisted Living on Friday 2/20 @ 1:30p. We'll be having an Olympics– themed party with games, refreshments and prizes ( maybe medals). Join us and fill your heart with joy.

Our next meeting of Community Faith Leaders will take place in early February ( date to confirmed soon and anyone can participate). The outpouring of love from over 20+ churches continues to show the commitment to our community's vulnerable and a determined spirit towards real solutions with shared sources.

Finally, DOC's Week of Compassion offering will be 2/15/26. The theme "A New Way," totally mirrors what we are hoping to accomplish in 2026.

Whether it's devoting budgeted or Maxine Maxey funds to support recurring projects we hold dear or discovering new projects to champion, our love for service will continue to find "new ways" to serve.

Dear Outreach Team,

Thank you all for continually supporting the DHS Youth Services Center! Your contributions assist with supplies, clothing, and snacks for our hungry students! We are all so appreciative!

Best,

Jenny Clark
